

15 February

☩ Upon the same 15th day of February, were born into the better life:

At Brescia, the holy martyrs Faustinus and Jovita, who under the Emperor Hadrian, after many glorious contendings for Christ's faith, received by martyrdom a crown of victory, about the year 122.

At Rome, the holy martyr Crato, the Orator, who was baptised by blessed Valentine, Bishop of Terni, in Umbria, along with his wife and his whole house and no long while after, he and they together attained unto martyrdom, in the year 273.

At Terni, in the year 270, the holy Virgin and martyr Agapis.

Also the holy martyrs Saturninus, Castulus, Magnus, and Lucius.

At Vaison, in Gaul, holy Quinidius, Bishop of that see, whose death, in the year 578, how precious it was in the sight of the Lord miracles do oftentimes witness.

At Capua, in the year 695 the holy Confessor Decorosus, Bishop of that city.

In the province of Valeria, in the sixth century, the holy Priest Severus, of whom blessed Gregory writeth that by his tears he recalled a dead man to life.

At Antioch, the holy Deacon Joseph.

In Auvergne, in the sixth century, the holy Virgin Georgia.

And elsewhere many other holy martyrs, confessors and holy virgins.

☩ Thanks be to God.
